Evan’s rags to riches story is the epitome of the American dream and has inspired audiences worldwide. Early in his marriage he struggled to buy groceries, now they live around the corner from Trump national golf course in majestic Rancho Palos Verdes California. Evan and his “bride” have enjoyed a dynamic marriage for over 11 years. They renew their vows every year in a different state or country.

Evan owns and founded a multi-million dollar international extreme sports enterprise that he started with no investors or outside capital. Evan also became a prime time sports talk radio personality in Los Angeles with no broadcasting experience or schooling. As a former model & body builder, Evan has spent the last 17 years studying Health and Nutrition. Unlike overweight celebrities hawking diet drinks, Evan lives his beliefs with an 8% body fat index.

Evan has directed and starred in the best selling paintball video of all time Inside Paintball and founded his own charity. Evan lives his dreams and will reach your audience to do the same.
